

Standard for Writing the Paper

Standard:

In order to publish the paper in the journal, the applicant must submit both a scientific paper and an abstract in a separate file (paper, abstract in Georgian or English).

Rules for Writing an Abstract:

The volume of the abstract is 100-300 words.

The abstract must be given in Georgian or English.

Keywords should be given in Georgian or English.

Rules for Submitting the Paper:

The paper should be sent to y.kelikhashvili@ssu.edu.ge

Scientific papers are accepted only in the Georgian or English language.

The paper includes an abstract in the original language of the paper.

Volume of the article must be minimum 3 and maximum 10 pages.

The structure of the article should include the following components:

- Introduction, which includes the relevance of the paper.
- Body text, which includes the research methodology and the results obtained.
- Conclusion, which includes findings, possible recommendations and future perspectives.

Author(s) name, surname, university, program / specialty should be given in Georgian or English.

The article should include the information about the supervisor (if available) and the bibliography (list of references) in English.

Abstract Formatting Guidelines:

The paper should be formatted according to the Chicago Referencing Style;

- Font – Sylfaen.
- Font size: title of the topic, participant's name and surname, name of the higher education institution, academic degree, supervisor's name and surname - 12; Body text - 12. □ The titles of the components of the paper should be given in bold (BOLD); □ Citation should be in line with the Chicago Referencing Style:
- Line spacing - 1.5.
- Page margins - 2.5 on all sides.

For more information on Chicago Referencing Style, see the following link: www.chicagomanualofstyle.org

Note: All papers will be checked on plagiarism.